

Equal shared primary residential responsibility

Either in Findings of Fact or include with child support provision

Father has net monthly income for child support purposes of $3185. The child support amount is $920 per month. Mother has net monthly income for child support purposes of $2529. The child support amount is $723 per month. Child support is calculated consistent with the North Dakota Child Support Guidelines.

Child support provision

Commencing _____, and on the first day of each month thereafter father shall pay $920 per month per month for daughter and son; and mother shall pay $723 per month for daughter and son; the difference, $920 - $723 = $197 due from father as actual payment unless child support rights are assigned for either daughter or son in which situation each parent is responsible for the full child support amount: father = $920 per month and mother = $723 per month. The child support shall terminate when the last child reaches the age of majority (or completes high school whichever occurs last if a. and b. below) as follows:

- a. the last child is enrolled and attending high school and is 18 years of age prior to the date the last child is expected to be graduated; and
- b. the last child resides with the person to whom the duty of support is owed, and
- c. Regardless of a. and b., not past age 19 without order of the Court.

If child support is not paid in the month that it is due, it will be subject to interest.

NDCC Sections 14-09-08.1(2)(a.) and (b.), require each party to immediately inform the State Disbursement Unit of their social security numbers; residential and mailing addresses; telephone numbers; motor vehicle operator's license numbers; employer's name, address, and telephone number; and change of any other condition which may affect the enforcement of the payment of child support.

All child support payments shall be made payable and sent to the North Dakota State Disbursement Unit, P.O. Box 7280, Bismarck, North Dakota 58507-7280 in the form of personal check, bank cashier's check or money order and not cash. A personal check will be accepted until such time as one is returned for "insufficient funds." Should such an event occur, the State Disbursement Unit will no longer accept a personal check and payment will have to be in the form of money order or bank cashier's check. The child support obligation is subject to immediate income withholding. The child support obligation is subject to review at the option of either party according to state statute and policy.

Split primary residential responsibility

father has 1st child and mother has 2nd child

Either in Findings of Fact or include with child support provision

Father has net monthly income for child support purposes of $3185. The child support amount is $920 per month. Mother has net monthly income for child support purposes of $2529. The child support amount is $723 per month. Child support is calculated consistent with the North Dakota Child Support Guidelines.

Child support provision

Commencing _____, and on the first day of each month thereafter father shall pay $920 per month per month for 2nd child; and mother shall pay $723 per month for 1st child; the difference, $$920 - $723 = $197$ due from father as actual payment unless child support rights are assigned for either 1st child or 2nd child in which situation each parent is responsible for the full child support amount: father = $920 per month and mother = $723 per month. The child support shall terminate when the last child reaches the age of majority (or completes high school whichever occurs last if a. and b. below) as follows:

- a. the last child is enrolled and attending high school and is 18 years of age prior to the date the last child is expected to be graduated; and
- b. the last child resides with the person to whom the duty of support is owed and
- c. Regardless of a. and b., not past age 19 without order of the Court.

If child support is not paid in the month that it is due, it will be subject to interest.

NDCC Sections 14-09-08.1(2.)(a.) and (b.), require each party to immediately inform the State Disbursement Unit of their social security numbers; residential and mailing addresses; telephone numbers; motor vehicle operator's license numbers; employer's name, address, and telephone number; and change of any other condition which may affect the enforcement of the payment of child support.

All child support payments shall be made payable and sent to the North Dakota State Disbursement Unit, P.O. Box 7280, Bismarck, North Dakota 58507-7280 in the form of personal check, bank cashier's check or money order and not cash. A personal check will be accepted until such time as one is returned for "insufficient funds." Should such an event occur, the State Disbursement Unit will no longer accept a personal check and payment will have to be in the form of money order or bank cashier's check. The child support obligation is subject to immediate income withholding. The child support obligation is subject to review at the option of either party according to state statute and policy.